Bay gets 24 hour CB service

Twenty-four hour citizens' radio operation for Bay St. Louis' civil defense organization went into operation over the weekend with the installation of receiving and transmitting facilities and an antenna at the city police station on Union Avenue.

But Stiefel, chief of the city's CD organization, said Channel 7 has been assigned as an emergency stand-by channel for citizens' band operations and all police, fire or civil defense work is to be done on this channel. He also urged that its use be restricted to these fields.

Installation of the equipment was made by James Ferry, Bertha J. J. and Felton Cuevas who climbed the water tower on Union and spent about four hours Sunday working up there. Stiefel expressed appreciation for their work which will enable Bay St. Louis to reach such places as Slidell, Gulfport, Biloxi, Pascagoula and Wiggins in times of emergency.

The equipment provides an emergency generator for power supply in case of bad weather and is hooked up with Waveland's police and fire departments. Since there are now at least 160 citizens' band sets in the county, Stiefel noted the 24-hour service can be of real benefit in a disaster or other type of emergency. Besides enabling the city to call for aid it will enable Bay St. Louis to assist other communities if they are stricken.

Many people who work late hours, such as truck drivers, boat operators, wrecker services and the like, will be able to call for help when no one else would hear them. A large amount of the population is without phone and it will benefit them in the same manner.

Cost of the equipment was $255, Stiefel reported.

MTO staff zooms up, get road bids

It's up, up, up, almost to the moon, at Mississippi Test Operations.

This week's population count is 1,442 of which 1,276 are contractors personnel. Last week's count was 1,424.

There are 36 NASA, 96 General Electric, 46 GE subcontractors, 130 Corps of Engineers, 32 Corps real estate, 1 Weather Bureau, 8 Raytheon, 1 security patrol and 1 each, Boeing and North American Aviation.

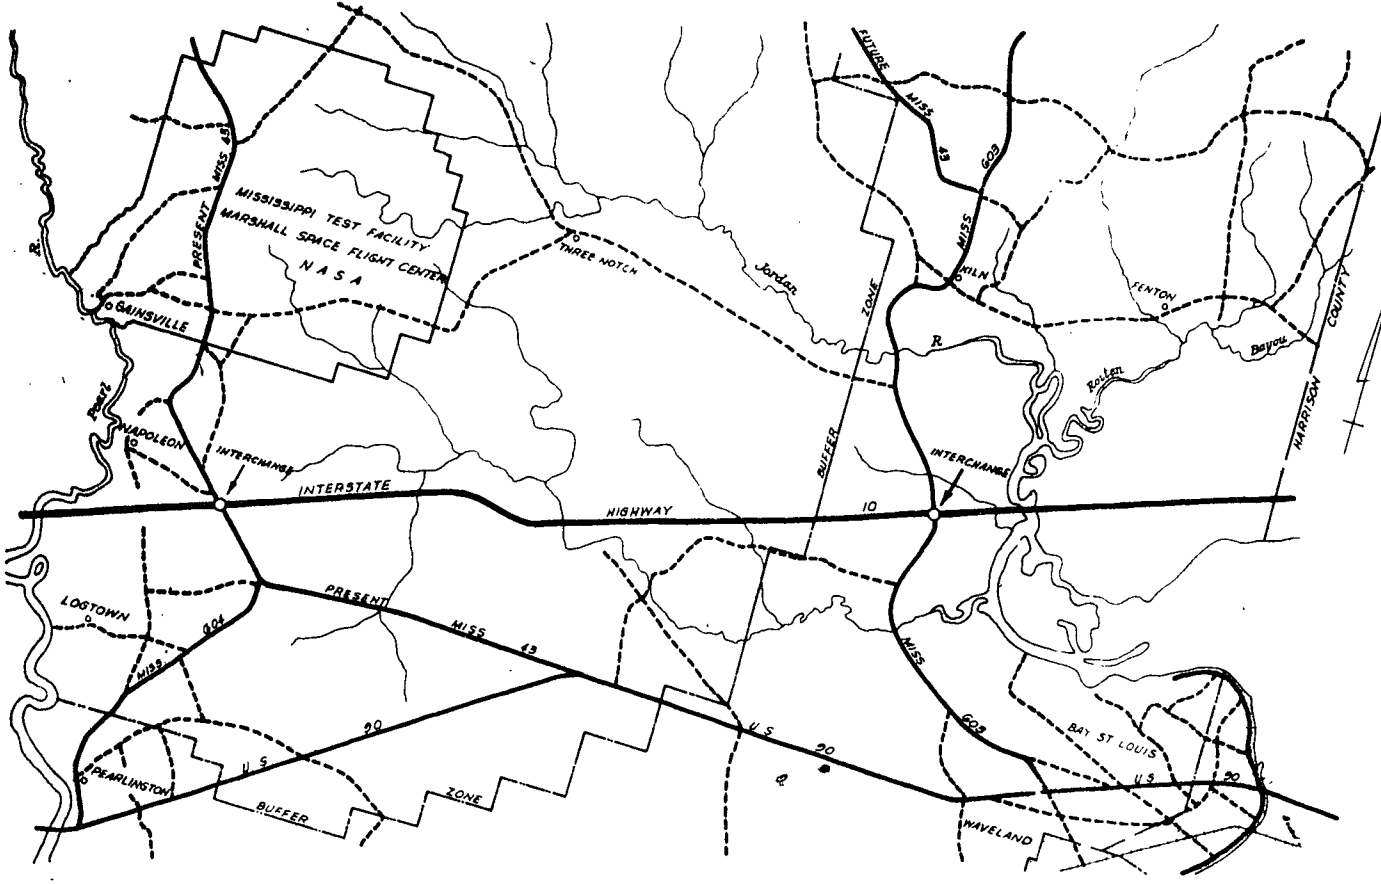

Apparent low bid of Western Materials of Jackson at $1,178-87 for the construction of four roads in the test site is under way by the Engineers. Government estimate was $1 million.

Breath solos sunfish to NO in 17 hours

Chuck Breath finally realized a long-time ambition last Sunday when he sailed, single-handedly, his 14-foot sunfish, the Pass Christian Yacht Club's "Sunfish" in New Orleans in 17 hours.

Chuck left the Pass harbor at 8:15 a.m. and reached his destination at 9:15 p.m. In making the trip, Chuck, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Breath, Jr., sailed from the Pass Yacht Club in the South.

PROPOSED LOCATION OF INTERSTATE HIGHWAY 10 Hancock County, Miss.

TOPIC FOR FRIDAY HEARING - This is proposed route for Interstate 10 through Hancock County with connections to U. S. 90 which will be aided by State Highway Department at public hearing at 2 p. m. Friday in Agricultural Center on Necaise Avenue. Highway Commissioner John D. Smith of Southern District and state engineers will outline proposed work and afford those interested an opportunity to speak on economic effects involved. I-10 will cover about 19 miles in the county. Plans to four-lane U. S. 90 and Rt. 43 west of Bay St. Louis, linking scenic coast route with Interstate also will be discussed. Friday hearing is one step of department in preparing a project for bids and construction.

Start on jury for Cole case

Selection of a jury for the trial of Paul Thomas Cole, alleged assailant of two Bay St. Louis women last month, began late Wednesday.

A special venire of 72 prospective jurors was called on the motion of defendant who has pleaded innocent to two charges of burglary, one of attempted rape and one of rape. Trial on a capital offense in Mississippi provides for the special panel.

Judge Leslie Grant ordered no one except county officers in front of the jury rail and directed Sheriff Sylvan Ladner to post guards at all doors to insure order during the case.

Start of the case was delayed until the conclusion of a burglary and larceny trial resulting from the theft last fall of $11,750.52 worth of furniture, appliances and other equipment from the farm of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller, Jr., of Rt. 2, Carriere. That case got under way Tuesday and the jury returned in late afternoon Wednesday.

It was hung on the charges against Joe Dobson of Leetown and his case was continued to the next term. Charges arising from the same theft against Irvin Frances St. Pe were nolle prossed while Donald H. Aucoin, who changed his plea to guilty during the trial, is to be sentenced today along with Herman V. (Randy) Daniels, who earlier pleaded guilty. A fifth defendant, Edward O. Daniels, has not yet appeared before the court.

In a busy week of criminal cases after a specially impaneled grand jury submitted its report last Wednesday, Judge Leslie Grant sentenced four defendants to penitentiary terms on pleas of guilty and is scheduled to impose other sentences before the May term winds up Friday.

Davis Martin McCall drew concurrent one-year terms at Parchman on two charges of burglary and larceny and seven of burglary at Waveland homes. McCall was charged with entering the home of Dr. Franklin Hardie, 540 Waveland Beach, and taking $15 worth of goods, the home of John H. Smit, 600 Waveland Beach where $371 in goods was taken, and entering homes of Mrs. Thelma Tally, Central Avenue; Mrs. William Adam, 546 Beach; Ned Cadella, 534 Beach; B. F. Eshleman, 596 Beach; and Gerald F. DeRose, Necaise Street.

Two of three men charged with burglary at Winn-Dixie supermarket earlier this year got three years in the pen while a third got seven years, suspended with five years probation. Robert G. Kierce and William Carl Woods each got three years. The seven-year term went to Larry Everett Males and the grand larceny charge against him was reduced to malicious mischief. He

GOVERNOR TORRES CHATS WITH SJA STUDENTS

Yucatan governor visits Bay, MTO

Gov. Louis Torres y Masias of the Mexican state of Yucatan commenced his five day tour of Mississippi by visiting Bay St. Louis and the Mississippi Test Operations Monday.

Alleged peeper nabbed Saturday, held for hearing

A 19-year-old youth, arrested Saturday night by city police, has admitted to being the "peeping Tom" who has disturbed households in the demotulzin Avenue and Hancock Street area in recent weeks.

Police Chief Lathan Garriga said Willie Dorsey, Negro, told him and Patrolman Bill Charbonette Sunday that he had gone into six yards in the vicinity. He faces trial on trespass charges before Beat 5 Justice of the Peace Nolan Lader. Dorsey was arrested about 9 p. m. Saturday by Officers Robert Goodsell and Paul Egloff.

James Williams, Negro of Sycamore Street, was arrested about 6:30 a. m. Saturday on charges of assault and drunkenness evolving from the facial stabbing of Alice Gilman. The woman was treated at Hancock General Hospital and then jailed on drunk and disturbing the peace charges, Chief Garriga reported.

After a two-hour tour of construction at the huge missile test center, where Capt. William C. Fortune, project manager, was the guide, Gov. Torres was the luncheon guest of Mayor John A. Scalfide and Commissioners J. Cyril Glover and Warren Traub at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

In the afternoon before visiting the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory at Ocean Springs he drove around Bay St. Louis with a stop at St. Joseph Academy where he was greeted with shrieks by a score or more of Latin students including several from Mexico.

According to Dan M. Russell, Jr., one of three coast citizens representing Gov. Paul B. Johnson, Jr., in arranging Gov. Torres' visit on the coast, a major reason for the Mexican governor's official visit to this state is the many similarities in size and population between Yucatan and Mississippi. Besides Russell, David Cottrill, Jr., and William G. Simpson, both of Gulfport, represented Mississippi's governor.

Accompanying Gov. Torres to Bay St. Louis and Hancock County were attorney-advisor Carlos T. Goff, his aide, Rodrigo Rodriguez, and Ralph M. Siverio, director, Latin American Institute, University of

Miss Bay pageant is June 27

Fifth annual Miss Bay St. Louis pageant, sponsored by the Jaycees, has been scheduled for Saturday, June 27, in Bay High School auditorium, Charles Carter, Jr., and Lee Choplin, co-chairman, have announced.

Mrs. E. J. Marengo and Mrs. J.C. Koenen are handling entrants and entry blanks are now available at Arceneaux Super Service or may be obtained by calling HO7-5519 or HO7-5171.

Eligible are young women who have lived in Hancock County for at least six months as of July 20 between the ages of 18 and 28 as of Sept. 1, and a high school graduate by Sept. 1. Contestants may be either amateur or professional.

Last year's winner, Miss Nita Kay Erwin, will crown the 1964 winner who will receive a $100 U.S. Savings Bond and an all-expense paid trip to the Miss Mississippi pageant in Vicksburg in July.

IT'S POPPY TIME - Laureen Turcotte, Miss Poppy of American Legion auxiliary juniors, sells traditional flower to Mrs. Rene Bermond, Gold Star mother member of auxiliary, as unit prepares for annual sale Saturday, Memorial Day. Miss Poppy will lead parade through Bay St. Louis at 2 p. m. Saturday launching program. Mrs. Lena Cuevas is chairman for event.

County school board halts building plans

Confronted by a delegation of leading citizens from the Pearlinton area at its meeting Saturday, the county board of education agreed to take no further action toward implementing any building plans until all members are present and invited the Pearlinton group's attorney to meet with it at such time.

The delegation appeared in protest to the board's decision at its meeting the previous Saturday to expend whatever money is forthcoming from condemnation of Logtown School for Mississippi Test Operations in expanding facilities at Gulfview School in Lakeshore. They contended that the money should go to replacement of the facility in Pearlinton.

After some haggling between the board and Beat 1 Supervisor H. G. Dean as to what the board had agreed or not agreed to do in Pearlinton, particularly in preparation of the proposed 16th Section site, Joel Blass, attorney for the protesters, suggested channels for investigation which might ease the schools' financial woes.

He proposed seeking special legislation through the present Congress to secure a settlement

Pick 3 for Boys State

JOHN LEE GENIN

ANDREW J. RAMAGE, III

RICHARD J. STECHMANN

Selection of three delegates from Hancock County to the annual Boys' State is announced this week by Fred Fayard, Americanism chairman for the American Legion.

Named were Andrew J. Ramage, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramage, Jr., of Leopold Street, representing Bay High School, and John Lee Genin, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Genin of Carroll Avenue, and Richard J. Stechmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo G. Stechmann of Bay View Court, both representing St. Stanislaus College.

Teen Times

This promises to be a pretty busy vacation season for most local boys and girls. Many have already gotten summer jobs, others will be busy with swimming or sailing lessons, softball and baseball and unfortunately there are those who will be occupied with summer school. To these we'll send our sympathy with the advice to study a bit harder next term so you too may enjoy your vacation henceforth.

AT ANNAPOLIS - Midshipman First Class Grady Perkins, Jr., 23, son of Grady Perkins of 105 Phillip St., is scheduled to graduate from US Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., on June 3 with bachelor of science degree and commissioned as ensign in Navy. He was graduated from Bay High School in 1958, attended Miss. State University, State College and Naval Academy on a Congressional appointment, being sworn in as midshipman in July 1960. After graduation, Perkins will take leave before reporting to his duty station at Mayport, Fla., aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Roosevelt.

ADULT EDUCATION

Registration will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Gulfview School for the adult education courses this summer to be taught by Walter Dandens of the county school faculty. Fee is $25 and the 12-week course is open to anyone 20 years or older in preparation for taking General Educational Development Course tests.

Parties, parties and more parties feteed graduates. Bay High seniors celebrated receiving their diplomas at a dance at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. St. Stanislaus boys took their best girls out on the college pier and had a ball. Those at SSC receiving awards were John Garst who took both the character cup for boarders and the science award, Mike Larroux earned the character cup among day students, Jim Wentworth the character medal and Dusty Rhodes the American Legion award.

SJA girls literally parted all day and most of the night after they graduated at 9 a.m. mass Saturday. Seniors and their parents breakfasted in the convent dining room after formal ceremonies ended. A group went to Mary Beth Lader's for snacks before hunching at Alison Trellis' home at 1 p.m., then went to Susan Harrison's home in Pass Christian for a swimming party to be followed by a girls only swim at the Driftwood Motel pool that night. Later one group had plans not to come in before dawn Sunday, but after such a full schedule we doubt that many were able to keep their eyes open that long!

Christ Episcopal Day School eighth graders were also royally feteed. Nancy McDonald hosted a swimming party at her home Saturday morning and tried chicken was the main course for her hungry guests.

Dickie Delley apparently has the inside track as far as Ann Ballatin's affections are concerned. . . could be that his brand new car might have a little bit to do with the current state of affairs!

Guess it's time to mention future plans of this year's crop of graduates. Among Bay High graduates PRJC bound are Ronnie Breland, Mike Burge, Liz Charbonnetta, Gloria Carver, Steve Church, Larry Cox, Wayne Daggett, Ed Estapa, Ronnie Ferrell, Larry Harrison, Vic Green, Clarine Hayward, Kathy Jacobs, Marilyn Lader, Buddy Langirand, Leroy Lake, Herbie Peterson, Billy Pitcairn, Joey Puchan, Pat Shorb, Robert Schilling, Jerry Thomas, Chuck Wagner, Dick Watts, Sandra Williams and Judy West. Linda McCulloch and Lewis Kemp are headed for Millsaps; James Baldrice, C. J. Favre, Mike Gowen, Barry Kneeland and Billy Thomas will attend Mississippi State where Billy was awarded a football scholarship. The University of Southern Mississippi will, as usual draw the second largest local crop. . . some include Helen Bickel, David Carter, Doty Estapa, Al Lader, he too has a football scholarship; Charlotte Lader, Luther Lader and Doug Selley. Diane Pressnell says she's going to join the Waves, Barbara Noonan will enter nurse's training in the fall, and Cynthia Kimmel, Jean Krambey and Elaine Necaise all have matrimonial intentions.

Now that school is officially out we can release the name of the pretty blue eyed, black haired SJA senior who is now wearing her lovely engagement ring 24 hours a day. . . it's Joy Lader who should be well prepared having served as president of the FHA.

A large number of local girls and boys left early today for the annual three day 4-H camp at Ocean Springs. They're scheduled to return around noon Saturday.

Paul Weaver's mother came all the way from Tulsa, Hon-

Missing is David Treutel, Jr.

AT MSCW - Lynn Marie Fernandez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fernandez of 104 Nicholson Ave., Waveland, is a candidate for bachelor of science degree in business from Mississippi State College for Women in exercises Sunday. She has been president of Newman Club and treasurer of Phi Beta Lambda, business society.

duras, for his graduation from Stanislaus.

Lisbet Phillips is looking forward to a fabulous summer vacation in La Lima, Honduras, where she'll be the guest of her cousin Ree Garchow.

Cheryl Seauzness is getting ready to enter business college to keep her busy until Rip Kennedy receives his college degree.

The fact that she was valedictorian of St. Joseph's graduating class was doubly meaningful to Linda Munch as the priest who had presented her with her kindergarten diploma was present as a special guest. Rev. V. Liberto of St. Mary's Italian Church in New Orleans was on hand to see Linda receive her award as was her sixth grade teacher, Mrs. A.C. Vicks who has since retired and lives in Gulfport. Linda will take chemistry courses at Loyola this summer in preparation for pre-medical courses in the fall, but she and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Munch leave June 4 for Carswell AFB where she'll visit best boy friend Bobby Feigle of Algiers, La. They will then go on to Laredo, Tex., for a visit with Joe Munch and family before she settles down to studies once again.

Nita Kay Erwin's fiance, Jimbo Green, who incidentally gifted her with a gorgeous diamond engagement ring, was the weekend guest of her and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Erwin. Nita returned to Southern with him Sunday to be present when he got his sheep-

St. Stanislaus awards given

Honor awards for the 1963-64 session were presented to students of St. Stanislaus College at an assembly last Thursday by Brother Hugh, president, and Brother Flavin, principal.

Winners in addition to the seniors who were listed last week:

Highest scholastic average for all subjects—Nicholas Butler, 11A; Hans Setana, 11B; Stephen Attaya, 10A; Randy Morrison, 10B; Robert Campbell, 9A; and William Bryant, 9B. Jackets for being on the honor roll five consecutive times went to Butler, John Scafidie and Stephen Attaya. Letters skin Tuesday. He's been signed as a Yankee ball club bonus boy, but will play only on off school time as he will begin medical studies in September.

Ronnie Russell brought his best girl Evonne Mullin of Jackson home from Ole Miss for a weekend visit with his parents at their Main Street home. Evonne and Ronnie are still going together, but Ronnie is again wearing his Kappa Sig pin.

Becky Adams is among those aiding Mrs. P. E. Porter, Jr., with beginners' swimming classes. Becky is waiting patiently for her yellow and black swim suit which she and other members of the competitive swimming team will begin wearing as soon as they arrive.

Former twin residents Liz and Dave Dahlgren who are now attending LSU in Baton Rouge and LSUNO respectively, plan to spend at least a couple of weekends here during the summer.

Congratulations to Hope Sewell, recently elected president of SJA's student council and to Jennifer Brun, Sodality president.

St. Joseph freshmen are still celebrating the fact that they won top spot during Field Day which took place on Wednesday, May 6. They scored a whopping 335 points. Jo Mary Artigue took first place.

Peggy Monti, Jean Martindoll and Barbara Jean Monti entertained at a party for St. Joseph seniors at the yacht club Saturday night. The Starfires furnished music for the occasion.

Phil Warner's farewell-for-the-summer gift to Lynn Bonck was a cross on a chain.

Who happened to step on a roofing nail while skipping down the street Sunday afternoon? Her mother calls her "Clyde".

A National Merit Scholarship finalist, she was named to the National Honor Society as a junior. In her sophomore year Charlotte was awarded the National Educational Development Test Certificate given the upper quartile of 10th grade students in Mississippi.

She expects to major in mathematics at a university in Mississippi in preparation for a teaching career in the secondary schools.

CHARLOTTE FAYARD
Miss Fayard valedictorian at Columbus

Charlotte Margaret Fayard, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Fred E. Fayard, Jr., of Columbus Air Force Base and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fayard of Bay St. Louis, is valedictorian of the graduating class at S.D. Lee Senior High School in Columbus with a four-year average of 96.11.

A native of Bay St. Louis, entered seventh grade at Lee High from Anchorage, Alaska, attended eighth grade in Denver, Colo., and returned to Lee High as a ninth grader.

Charlotte was assistant editor this year of The Mirror, school newspaper, was honored by the Columbus Pilot Club as girl of the month for March and was second place in the physics division of the Lee High Science Fair with a project in which she converted a monaural phonograph to stereo.

A National Merit Scholarship finalist, she was named to

At Bay High

Legion medals go to Watts, Estapa

American Legion citizenship awards went to Dick Watts and Dorothy Estapa when Bay High School graduated the largest class yet to finish there in exercises Friday night at Tiger Stadium.

Watts, who also received the science and mathematics awards, delivered the valedictory address as highest ranking student in the 85-member class. His theme was on the changing times from the days of Charles Lindbergh's solo flight across the Atlantic to the present time, 30 years later. Michael Gowen, the salutatorian, spoke on the changes ahead for the students, comparing Beethoven playing music by note rather than by ear. The class, he declared, now goes forth to play by ear rather than by note as it goes into the world.

Other awards presented by City School Superintendent J.D. McCullough to the graduates were English, Elaine Miller; social studies, John Brady; language, Carol Fayard; business education, Clarine Hayward; typing, Marilyn Ladner; boy athlete, Leroy Luke, Jr.; girl athlete, Maria Peterson; band, C.J. Fayard; industrial arts, Edward Estapa, and home economics, Kathleen Jacobs.

The Bay High School band provided music for the stadium exercises. Rev. Michael Kelly, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, delivered the invocation while Rev. Charles R. Johnson of Christ Episcopal Church gave the benediction. The Legion medals were presented by John D. Rutherford, Jr., of Clement Bontemps Post 139 and McCullough distributed the diplomas.

At an assembly during the last week of school Danforth Foundation I Dare You Awards were given to Miss Jacobs and Watts.

to the county, as well as conferences with the U.S. attorney-general's office in Washington to working out a different formula for condemnation of school property as compared with private residences. Walter J.
Phillips, attorney for the board, spoke with the trustees on these fields after the group left.
E. P. Orte, president of the board, invited Blass to meet with trustees when the Gulfview and Pearlington development question comes up and indicated the decision on how to proceed will be made in executive session. At the request of Trustee Charles P. Murphy of Beat 1, who was ill and unable to attend Saturday's session, there was no further action taken on plans for either school.

The board president recalled that he had been recovering from surgery at the time the system's proposed $375,000 bond issue for school improvements was defeated on May 2.
He said that night he had asked County Superintendent of Education Robert F. Ladner to request the board to do nothing on future plans until all members were present at a meeting and could appraise the situation. However, at its meeting May 4 with a Pearlington-Log-town group present the board, with Orte absent, voted a survey for the 16th Section and other steps indicative of construction plans at Pearlington with the government settlement.
This was changed at the next meeting.

At 10 a.m. the four trustees present called an executive session to talk with Superintendent
J. D. Penton of Hancock North Central School and J. D. Harrell, principal of the high school department there. They remained closeted until almost noon.

As we sit looking out of the window admiring lush green foliage swaying in the breeze and watch a misguided sea-gull skim through the branches, when we really should be working, we find ourselves thinking for at least the thousandth time, how perfectly awful it would be to live anywhere else in the world. A true cosmopolite most certainly won't agree but as a dyed-in-the-wool 'country gal' at heart we think living anywhere else would be impossibly dull. Where else does everyone know the choicest gossip long before it's in print? And in much more detail than libel laws would permit? As for having fun... any occasion is ample for a party... when it snowed, snow parties; it froze, freeze parties... then came a cloudburst, you guessed it, rain parties... but the best are yet to come... just wait 'til a hurricane threatens and of course no one who doesn't absolutely have to work does... so the hurricane month of September isn't dreaded in the least, even by those who went through the disaster of '47... residents of low areas just go to the homes of friends on higher grounds and celebrate until the red flags go down. And where else in the whole world does everybody use blank checks for note pads? Apparently local banks have no objections because that's just what they're used for all over town! We could go on and on on this subject but had best get this week's news report underway.

At the bowling banquets

Jenny and Frank Trapani were most surprised when their bowling team turned the tables on them and presented both with identical jackets and a lovely clock with team members' names engraved on it at their banquet at Gus Stevens' last week. Trapani's team took first place in both Pin Ups and Bay Belles leagues. Ruble bordages was surprised with a special trophy for sportsmanship, or should it be sports womanship! Annabel (Mrs. Richard) Proctor treated her second place team to refreshments before and during the banquet.

Wish we'd had time to visit with one of our very best corresponding friends, Mrs. Frances Lawton when she, daughter Ann and Ann's boy friend paid Mrs. Ben Peterson a brief visit last weekend.

Lots of get well wishes again... summer flu is making the rounds and prospective bride Penny Herring is among current victims; Bob Hubbard another. Ethel (Mrs. Nolan) Ladner has also been under the weather but still insists on working in her lovely yard and Miss Lucille St. Amant is a victim of all things, the mumps.

We'll say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Clay Miller who left their Carroll Avenue home for New Albany, last Saturday.

Former Court Street resident, Mrs. Claire Lenard who now makes her home in Covington, accompanied by Mrs. Vera Carpenter, made a special trip here to attend graduation at St. Joseph on Saturday.

Newcomers Claire and Bob Williams, native Texans, are anticipating the arrival of their first Mississippi in early fall, they now have one son and one daughter.

Chris Bell breezed into town driving a very fancy new automobile... he was really here on business... a news story for the Huntsville Daily Times but found time to see Ann Langley in the process.

Maudine and George Remphrey who first settled in Lakeshore are now living just about on the Bay-Waveland line, but plan to move again in the near future. They loved Lakeshore, and will get just about as near as possible when they occupy a home in Clearmont Harbor. George is an artist with NASA, Maudine is also an artist but does her painting at home.

Menu and hats were supreme Filet mignon, crayfish bisque and a number of other delicacies were on the menu when the Lakeshore Garden club held its annual luncheon and hat show at the Pines Restaurant last Thursday. Some really fabulous hats were in evidence and Ruth Ballant's 'tribute to the commuter' entry in the funny hat category probably caused the most comment although Mrs. Ben Peterson's missile spouting a single day lily was priceless. Nettie Burleigh took first for her original creation; Irene Graff for her big hat and there was a three way tie in small hat judging between Grace Bordages, Molly Casey and Rae Rasmussen, Molly Casey, incidentally also won the garden of the month plaque. Mrs. Ben Peterson was winner for the previous month. Gerri Blanchard and Betty Dorn won prizes in two very interesting games.

Sorry to have missed a call from an unidentified gentleman last week... he pointed out the fact that President Johnson's voice had not been heard on television or radio for the past ten days. I must confess to being uninformed on this subject as Mr. Johnson rarely confers with me about anything, but we did read somewhere that he conducts much of his business in a jet at 30,000 feet... so perhaps he's too much 'up in the air' to be heard.

Things were rather grim and business like around the courthouse last week due to the special grand jury and other excitement but District Attorney Boyce Holleman found time to tell an amusing joke to sort of break the tension. Not only was it funny, but also quite printable.

Focus will be on day lilies

Over 500 varieties of hemerocallis (commonly known as day lilies) are to be displayed at the first annual hemerocallis show at Bay-Waveland Garden Club center on Boardman Avenue Saturday. The public is invited to place entries in specimen and arrangement classes. These will be accepted from 8 until 10:30 a.m. and the public may view the flowers from 1 until 6 p.m.

Warning to wives

All wives have little habits that almost drive their husbands to drink but Ed Porter did something about wife Ann's custom of leaving the closet door open. When she arrived home from a shopping trip last Friday the door was gone... he had removed it from its hinges... so let this serve as a warning to all wives... we can't imagine anything more ghastly than having a closet open to more or less public view.

'Cay' and Henry Capdepon returned from San Antonio, Texas, last Sunday after visiting daughter Elsie Mae, husband CWO W. L. Higgins and family. Their granddaughter Carol (Mrs. William) Souder and first grandchild, Michael Souder, accompanied them home. Carol and Michael leave Sunday to return to San Antonio for a week then she'll go home to Valdez, Alaska, as all utilities there have been restored.

Sidney Woods has come up with just about the best solution to solve the currently prevalent problem of anonymous phone calls... he told such a caller that he would be glad to meet her, and suggested his shop as a perfect rendezvous... guess she was aware that wife Margie would be there of course as he's neither seen or heard anything since. Margie and Sidney had as weekend guests Margie's sister Ruby Walker and infant daughter Laurie Ann, here from Kansas and her brother, Mississippian State basketball great, Calland Mitchell.

Call for piano

HELPI Old Folks Home residents are badly in need of a piano... a little music would give them much pleasure... we're sure that although it would be nice to find someone to donate a shiny new one, anything would be much appreciated—so check your attics if you don't want to get rid of the one Junior absolutely refuses to practice on and either contact Rev. James Hanson of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, the home or in desperation your reporter... if it needs tuning, don't worry... we're positive we can persuade some sympathetic reader to help this most worthy cause! Fortieth wedding anniversary congratulations are on the way to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith who observed the occasion at their Jeff Davis Avenue home earlier in the month. There was much gaiety at the Russell Maurigi home at 339 Main Street when Russell celebrated his 55th birthday as a family reunion. Enjoying some of his out of this world food were Max and Nellus Rhodes and son 'Doc', another son 'Speedy', wife Joan and son Neil of Jackson, Gay and Ronald Daly and son Ron of Pass Christian, Lots and Gus Maurigi, son Ross and daughter er Ginger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boudin and the Manuel Maurigi and son Manuel, Jr.

On the subject of jokes we think this is the one to end all elephant stories. What is red and white on the outside and grey and white on the inside? A can of Campbell's cream of elephant soup. Ouch!

On fishing

According to fellow columnist Dec Elliott and another able fisherman, Pat Garcia, there just isn't any fishing as the water is muddy all the way out to the islands. Someone suggested that this unusual state of affairs may be due to Alaskan earthquake activity... we haven't the faintest idea, but normally the water should be getting right for speckled trout by this time.

Cat chatter

Mrs. E. Everett, one of our most ardent local animal fanciers, asks us to remind readers that cats kill snakes... which might make some more anxious to give homeless kittens refuge. We'll add a note for any possible snake lovers... snakes kill rats... if we have rat fans, let us know and we'll try to come up with something good about rats!

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Puchot had as weekend guests Mrs. Puchot's brother-in-law and sister, Postmaster and Mrs. Edward C. Marquette of Napoleonville, La. Mr. Marquette enjoyed a visit with local postal personnel, Walter Turcotte, Nona Zimmerman and Gladys Noonan during his stay. It seems we have the Prossers kind of a rough time last week... Mrs. Prosser's name is Grace, not Gladys and Ray's first name appeared as Roy due to a typo. Such is life!

Never let it be said that we mind publishing anything newsworthy even if it's late. We neglected to mention Pat Pitalo's mink last Christmas!

Two p.m. Wednesday, June 3, is set for the first meeting of Ballerinas of the Bulge (teacher Dot Russell thinks the new title more appropriate)... and asks us to tell prospective pupils to wear something sufficiently brief and comfortable to allow freedom of movement.

But tasty!

Heard lots of compliments on the C. of C. sponsored MTO tour and dinner at the Yacht Club last Wednesday and most guests appeared to have been more than a little impressed by the delicious steaks served... one comment was 'no better could have been served anywhere on the coast'... and we're always glad to compliment local culinary talent.

Belated birthday greetings are on the way to C.B. Mollere who celebrated his 11th birthday with a swimming party on Sunday... the actual birth date was the 21st, but it was more convenient to hold the fete on the 24th. We'll say a sad goodbye to the Donald Silbys who have moved to Long Beach where he'll manage a new store... so sorry... we did want to see the newest little Silby expected in July.

Little Karen Theresa Peterson, two-week-old daughter of Sylvia and J.D. Peterson, was christened at Our Lady of the Gulf on Sunday.

Happy to report that Dr. Hilaire Ogden is doing very well following surgery in Gulfport-Memorial Hospital last week.

Mrs. Robert Teague was presented with a lovely orchid corsage when her pupils, men-

The wedding is planned for 2 p.m., Saturday, June 6, at St. Ann's Catholic Church at Lissana. Mr. and Mrs. Moran will entertain with a reception afterwards at St. Ann's Youth Center.

AT WAVELAND BAPTIST GIRLS' AUXILIARY SERVICE

Waveland Baptist holds exercises for girls' group

Presentation service for the Girls' Auxiliary of Waveland Baptist Church was May 17 when awards were given to those who had completed various stages of work.

Maiden emblems went to Linda Bourgeois, Deborah Chandler, Charlene Clark, Vernetta Cohorn, Janet Luchich, Rhonda Roberts and Rhonda Wilkinson. Receiving second forward steps were Kay Gibbons, Deborah Herrington, Linda Ladner and Linda Gail Perdue. Highest step, that of Princess, was completed by Mrs. Chagnard.

Mrs. Chagnard wins hat show of T&C club

Mrs. Adrian Chagnard took the first and second prizes in the annual flower hat show staged by Town and Country Garden Club at its meeting May 19 at the home of Mrs. Earl Gates. Mrs. J.K. Kepner won the third prize.

Mrs. Chagnard presided and Mrs. Gates led the devotional and read minutes of the April meeting. Mrs. Kepner presented the treasurer's report and was appointed convalescence chairman.

Gale Gibbons.

Mrs. Jack Smith, GA director, presented the girls to the church. Mrs. Bill Olson presented the emblems and Mrs. Edsel Gibbons gave the charges.

The girls' dresses and background setting was white. A tea was served afterwards in the fellowship hall. The auxiliary colors of green, white and gold were used in decorating.

Others taking part in the ceremony were Mesdames J.D. Green, B.R. Ferrell, Elsie Painten and Joseph Daley who served as the receiving council for the girls.

DOG 1853

One of the most popular sights around Waveland is Mayor Garfield Lachner, who has a wife Lottie's tiny chihuahua. The dog is appropriately christened. They are the same time some people are walking his enormous Labrador dog. The dog's faces are strikingly like the faces of the people who own them. They each appear to have the same kind of animal the other.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS - LONG THE WAY - Automobiles with frantically working wipers and headlights gleaming in the bright sunshine. The wipers splash across the road, abandoned bicycles leaning against the same seawall. Their riders heads bobbing among the whitecaps and the shrill sounds of their excited voices as they frolic in the surf.

Pin Up bowlers present awards

Grace Bordages and Carol Martinolich took top individual honors while Trapani and Don's won team honors when awards were presented in Pin Up bowling league competition May 20 at Gus Stevens.

Mrs. Bordages won high individual average, 157, and high game, 202 while Mrs. Martinolich took high individual series, 530, and a Women's International Bowling Congress pin for that accomplishment. Patsy Fayard with 199 was second for high game.

The Trapani team composed of Janet Alme, Myrl Lafontaine, Patsy Fayard, Lou Wilkerson, Lydia Necaise and Val Marengo won the league championship, each member receiving a sponsor's award from WIBC. Second team was Annabel's with Grace Bordages, Ruble Bordages, Alma Manulich, Gladys Baxter, Buelah Peterson and Elaine Davis.

High team game, 731, and team series, 1948, was posted by Don's team composed of Carol Martinolich, Jo Ann Dear, Gerrie Benigno, Alice Morgan, Willie Burris and Barbara Fayard.

Pat Pitalo received the plaque for the most improved bowler and Ruble Bordages for the best sport. Grace Bordages also received a WIBC patch for an all spare game during the year. Last place trophy went to Jerome's with Dot Markel, Mat Rhodes, Rose Richard, Betty Rose, Betty Romanoff and Ann Shippey.

Chateau dumps Kiln

A seven-run rally in the bottom of the fourth proved too hot to handle for the Kiln softballers as heavy hitting Chateau Seu bombed them 12-7 in the second game of the Bay men's double header Monday night.

Larry Favre led the charge with 4-4, followed by Jerry Thomas with 3-3, and Mike Smith with 2-2.

Coach A.J. Morgan was winning pitcher only allowing 11 hits while Jerry Mitchell, who relieved Alton Ladner, gave up 16.

Berlin Ladner had 2-3, Herman Necaise 4-4 and Jimmy Ladner 1-2 for a losing cause.

REV. KENNETH BROWN PRESENTS KILN TROPHY TO CYO SQUAD

CYO nips Chateau to win Kiln event

Doc Rhodes, CYO second-sacker, brought home the bacon when he powered a line drive in deep center field with two out and the bases loaded in the bottom of the seventh to defeat favored Chateau Seu 11-10 in the finale of the Kiln softball tournament Sunday.

It was a long hard day for CYO which won three games, one in extra innings, by a one run margin.

In the finals action started when pitcher Larry Johnston drew a walk. He was followed by Donnie Saucier and Mike Lee who both lined singles loading the bases. With two out third baseman Nodie Ladner smashed a hit into right field for a triple. Curtis Matherne singled to right, Sam Alliston doubled to left, and Dusty Rhodes was given an intentional walk to gain loading the bases. Doc Rhodes who was 2-3 took A.J. Morgan's pitch that was high and outside and the game was won with one swing.

Nodie Ladner hit a double, a homer, and a triple and Doc Rhodes a single and two triples to take batting honors for the day.

Chateau Seu scored three runs in the first and added a tally in every inning except the fourth.

Donald Strong belted two doubles, a triple, and a homer for a losing cause. He was followed by Jerry Thomas who was 2-3.

In the semi-finals Chateau downed the Bay Angels 12-4 behind the booming bats of Raymond Strong, Larry Favre, Mike Strong and Albert Brignac who punched out 3-4.

Nickie Kingston hit a homer in the bottom of the third with George Anderson and Waymon Carr on and the other run came when Charles Bennett doubled sending Ray Chiniche home. All other innings were three up three down.

CYO pulled a close eighth inning game out the fire from Krankey's 5-4. Short fielder Donnie Saucier poled a home run in deep center with Larry Johnston on in the top of the second. Krankey's Earl Fayard drove a two run homer to tie the game. Krankey threatened in the top of the eighth when Fayard tripled and Jerry Ladner sacrificed to put the body men ahead. It was de or die for CYO when third sacker Nodie Ladner drove in Mike Lee and Larry Johnston with a stand up triple. Defending Bay champs
